PHILADELPHIA, PA – September 22, 2005 – David E. Lees, Senior Partner and James Biles, Partner of myCIO Wealth Partners LLC, announced the opening of a new office location at One Logan Plaza in Philadelphia.

myCIO is a Comprehensive, Independent and Objective (CIO) Financial advisory firm which provides consulting services to over $4 billion of investment assets of Individuals, Families, Endowments, Pensions and Trusts. myCIO was formerly Ernst & Young’s Philadelphia Investment Advisory Practice.

myCIO serves as the Chief Investment Officer (CIO) for many of its clients and has a specialty in the Alternative Investment area.

myCIO Wealth Partners was formed as the result of Ernst & Young’s decision to exit the Investment Advisory and Wealth Advisory services as of July 1, 2005 as the result of Sarbanes-Oxley. myCIO is one of the largest completely Independent Wealth Management firms in the country and is Nationally recognized as a leader in Independent Objective advice.

Mr. Lees is a former Partner and National Director of Ernst & Young’s Wealth Advisory Service Practice. He has been an Adjunct professor of Finance and Portfolio Management in Villanova University’s Commerce and Finance Department.

Also, on September 7th, the Board of Directors of the Bryn Mawr Bank Corporation (symbol BMTB) and its wholly-owned subsidiary, The Bryn Mawr Trust Company announced that David E. Lees was elected to serve on their Board.
