myCIO Wealth Partners and DAVID LEES
Named by Reuters as “Top Advisers 2008”

For Release:

IMMEDIATELY

PHILADELPHIA, PA – November 2007

David E. Lees, Founding Partner of myCIO Wealth Partners, a $5.9 billion dollar wealth management firm based in Philadelphia, was recently recognized by Reuters among their “Top Advisers 2008”. David and myCIO Wealth Partners were selected based on their client focus, product expertise, total assets under management, and growth of assets under management. Furthermore, David and myCIO were also recognized nationally by Bloomberg and Worth Magazine as a leading investment advisory firm.

myCIO Wealth Partners was formed as the result of Ernst & Young’s and PricewaterhouseCoopers’ decision to exit the Investment Advisory and Wealth Advisory service practice due to Sarbanes-Oxley.

myCIO is a Comprehensive, Independent and Objective (CIO) advisory firm which provides financial consulting services to over $5.9 billion of investment assets of Individuals, Families, Endowments, Defined Contribution and Benefit Plans, and Trusts.

myCIO serves as both the Chief Investment Officer and Chief Financial Officer for many of its clients and has a specialty in the area of Alternative Investments and fiduciary liability.

myCIO now provides Investment Advisory services to 40 Former and Current Chairman, CEOs and Presidents of Standard & Poors and Fortune 500 companies.

Mr. Lees is a former Partner and National Director of Ernst & Young’s Wealth Advisory Service Practice. He received a BBS degree in Accounting from James Madison University, and an MBA from Duke University’s Fuqua School of Business, Finance and Capital Markets. He also holds the following professional designations: Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA), and Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA).
